

2006 EYH MEETING UPDATE
3/7/06

Meeting Attendees: Tinka, Wendee, Georgia, Donna, Angela, Aviva

NOTE: this was an emergency meeting called by Chair

1. Career Fair
 - a. due to communication issues between EYH staff and LAHS, there is no career fair—what follows is ONLY for EYHers
 - b. group agreed to have the following set up:
 - ~2:30-2:45: students mill around the several booths that we hope to have (marines, unmla, nnmc, lanl, stem)
 - ~2:45-3:15: marines, unmla, nnmc, lanl, and stem will each give a 5 minute (not more than that!) presentation about their stuff
 - ~3:15-3:30: more milling
2. Registration
 - a. 7th graders are welcome to come IF they or their parents/teachers ask (they are not automatically invited)
 - b. Angela reports that we now have 121 registrees!
 - c. Given these numbers, the group decided that we do not have to call schools
3. Communications
 - a. The Press is allowed, they just need to report to the registration desk and get an EYH Liaison
4. Team Activity
 - a. No longer on the topic of earthquakes (due to budget issues), the new activity will involve minerals and geo-sequencing, with a focus on the relevance of geology to the everyday
 - b. The teams will be the same as the AM workshop and will have 10-12 students each because we are now down to 14 workshops
 - c. The gofers need team activity instructions so they know how to help (Aviva will out this together)
5. Food
 - a. Target for 150 people
 - b. Leftover non-perishables can be stored and used later, perishables can be donated
 - c. AM: muffins & danishes, fruit tray, fruit juice, water, coffee
 - d. LUNCH: hoagies & mini crossiant sandwiches, chips, veggie tray, cookies, and soda (short discussion as to whether we should have soda or not—decided yes)
 - e. PM: fruit, cookies, chips, other leftover
6. Sponsors
